Laura	Langley	*Regarding the environment Once it's gone - IT'S GONE. There is no "reset" button, here. ("The frog does NOT drink up the pond, in which he lives.) Think about it, please - before it's too late <3
Frank	Parker	If you're going to make a law, don't make it with loop holes so that no one has to follow it! How weak does that make you look? It makes you and our country look like fools & corrupt idiots!
Betsy	Cornwell	I'm a very small investor - mostly mutual funds, bank principle protected notes, etc. Over the last couple of decades I have taken to calling Wall St. the great Casino where the house not only wins, but gets away with literal murder and worst of all, does so at the expense of the common taxpayer who doesn't even have the money to buy a chip in their infernal game.
		Wall St. epitomizes predatory capitalism where the game is cheating the investors, cheating the government, cheating the workers, cheating taxpayers hanging by their fingernails and cheating the human race's prospects for survival.
Edward	Arnold	A basic principle of corporate governance: self-enforcement never works!
Tony	Greiner	A climate risk disclosure rule would be tremendous for smart investors, but with loopholes protecting companies that don't disclose their entire carbon footprint or companies that disclose false or misleading information will only add more instability to the market.
Michael	Bruckheimer	A rule with loopholes is no rule at all. If it is true that "The proposed rule leaves it to the companies to determine whether or not they need to disclose their entire carbon footprint, and shields them from liability if they lie on their annual filings." Then it will not deter companies which should be made to comply.
eric	Bare	a rules with big loopholes is no rules at all. We need a rule that works.
Kyle	R. Crocker	A step in the right direction. Now take two steps more. Honest evaluations outside the firms concerned is an absolute necessity.
Danielle	Schneider	Absolutely. All loopholes should be firmly closed now and in the future.
Susan	Robertson	Air pollution will spare no one. With accelerating degradation of our environment due to human activities, please don't leave big loopholes for polluters to make profits at the expense of public health.
Max	Haiflich	ALL Companies must be fully liable if they lie on their annual filings
Carla	Cicchi	All companies must be made to reveal their true carbon footprint. No more massive loopholes allowed in their annual filings. The truth must be told.
Fred	Oswald	Although this proposed rule represents progress, it should be strengthened to prevent misinformation by polluting companies.
Randall	Welch	Always Choose the Right
jen -	gavin	amen
Patty	Ridenour	And to top all the destruction off, we have deforestation, polluting corporations dumping their crap in our streams and waterways, wildlife dying off in huge numbers due to pollution, and the very real possibility that we, human beings, are now and will be the next victims of this ongoing climate crisis. Why don't the BIG MONEY boys care about that?
Jo-Ann	Sramek	As citizens many of us work our butts off trying to protect the environment and habitat for both people and animals all links in the same foodchain plus sign petitions, write commentaries and donate to Progressive causes and campaigns. At the same time, polluters are getting by with not having to take responsibility for their actions nor paying taxes at a needed percentage to sustain our economy because of loopholes. Truthfully, I am sick of this lopsided set of rules which prevail in this country. I have lived through many administrations, but none was worse than trump's. The worst part is that his lies and destruction still have an adverse effect on this country and the world. Please, let's get things moving in the proper direction before it is too late.
David	Berney Needleman	As we've seen, supply chains affect us, especially with a global issue like climate change. It doesn't matter where greenhouse gases are emitted, they affect us the same way. Failing to account for Scope 3 emissions, especially when they are the majority of emissions for the largest companies regulated by the SEC is a failure to take the climate crisis seriously. I urge you to address emissions with the urgency we require to sustain our way of life and continue to have a functional global economic system.
Darren	Legge	At the very least, an independent body should determine whether a company needs to report Scope 3 emissions or not.
Perry	Kendall	Averting climate catastrophe must be our priority. That means doing everything we can.
John C. Vidi	Vidinich	Better to get all their impact.
Gretta	Edwards	Businesses aren't going to be upfront about what they are doing. That would be the same as letting the fox guard the henhouse.
Angie	Duran	Businesses need Disclose their Climate Risks!We Need To know What their doing to our Planet!Protect our Air,Land Waters!Plant 1 Million Trees!Get Plastics out of our Oceans!Hold Accountable!
C	С	CITIZEN, VOTER & TAX PAYER
Allison	Nowacki	Climate anxiety has a serious impact on the youth population and those coming of age during a pandemic and massive uptick in natural disasters. At 24, I feel as though I have been experiencing a premature midlife crisis, as I question everything and my decisions in the face of an unreliable future. Doing all the "right things" for future success (working hard academically and professionally, saving money, buying a home, achieving advanced degrees, starting a family, etc) feels like an irresponsible investment in a world that is constantly on the cusp of collapse. I graduated college in 2017 and still have yet to have a single year where I could make ends meet and not live month-to-month on my salaries. I neglect myself simple pleasures for the sake of maintaining an austere budget. In the beginning, this was manageable. Five years later I am still suffering the same conditions as when I graduated.
		of our natural inclination to cut corners wherever possible and not mitigate against future risk: We are running out of future generations to which we may continue to pass the buck At this point I seriously question morally and ethically whether it is responsible to bring life into this world at its current state. We have been on a fast-paced journey of capitalism that prioritizes profit over people and consolidates wealth into the hands of a few wealthy white men that exhort unrestricted influence not only our own nation but the world, at the expense of an increasingly pillaged and shrinking Middle Class.
Michael	Siptroth	Climate change bills must be strong= No slippery loopholes!
Michael	Siptroth	Climate change bills must be strong= No slippery loopholes!
Celeste	Wanner	Climate change is not a distant threat; it is causing severe impacts across the country today including more intense droughts and wildfires and more severe storms and flooding, causing billions of dollars in damage.
Julie	Mascarenhas	Climate change is now - our family has had to evacuate twice in the last 2 years - fire & flood. Companies need to be reigned in to slow climate change!
rebecca	shirley	Climate change is the most important issue that is facing humankind, and we must start taking serious steps to affect it.
Michael	Schmidt	Climate change is too important to the future viability of this earth to allow companies to duck their responsibilities.
Gene	Donahue	Climate change will take no prisoners, and no one will be able to avoid it.
Ruby	Warren	Climate stabilization is the most important goal. Without it we have NOTHING!!!! All WILL DIE.
Belinda Marilyn	Hedge West	CLOSE POLLUTER LOOPHOLES AND HOLD THEM RESPONSIBLE Close polluter loopholes ASAP.

_ynn		Close Polluter Loopholes!!!!!! We NEED a clear standard for businesses to DISCLOSE data about their greenhouse gas emissions and climate-risky assets!!!!!
iail	DeMoss	Close the loopholes and make the tax evaders and polluters be responsible.
aran	Keller	close the loopholes or we will never save what we can of earth
Patricia	Blevins	Companies alone should not be responsible to disclose their entire carbon footprint on their own, for obvious reasons. How can the public be ensured full disclosure has happened?
lonny	Kaplan	Companies must disclose their carbon footprint in order for investors to make informed decisions.
lice	Lanckton	Companies should contribute to the solution, not lie.
Randy	Strauss	Corporations already shield the owners (stockholders) from liability. The corporation must tell the truth about their footprint and not be shielded from liability. Otherwise, this rule means nothing.
Alicia	Czechowski	Corporations have killed the Earth in the lust to snatch another fistful of dollars before they die and leave a stinking heap of toxic garbage as their only posterity.
Dave	Kisor	Damn the loopholes, full speed ahead!
udy	Zemel	delete all loopholes from recent Securities and Exchange Commission require new rules that allow polluters to hide their emissions.
anthy	Zeltman	disclosethe climate risk.
Barbara	Tosh	DO NOT leave it up to companies to police themselves or give them an OK to lie! This weakens the whole draft rule. Many companies will ignore the rule or just lie. This will not strengthen transparency. PLEASE make this rule stronger and without loopholes. The climate crisis affects the whole planet.
Alissa		Do what's in your power today to do what's right by generations to come to not live in a corporate wasteland.
Alissa		Do what's in your power today to do what's right by generations to come to not live in a corporate wasteland.
Sam	Zappala	Don't act like Trump.
Dorothy	Anderson	Don't let companies decide. Force them to close polluter loopholes.
-	Citron	Don't let companies lie about their responsibilities!
David
oyce	Hudson	Earth is everyone's home, until it is no longer livable, which will happen sooner than we know. Protect it. It's your job!
Robin	Hordon	not
/ litch	Long	Effective rules are needed to protect investors. As our economy changes, and business transform to meet new energy requirements, investors need to have the required information to judge whether a particular business is an appropriate investment.
N artin	Bugeja	Either we do something properly or not at all.
Villiam	Crist	Either you care about future generations or you don't!
Regina	Lester	Enough is enough! We must defend and protect the environment for the sake of our children and our children's children. We can only do that by being given accurate information to make our judgements.
(.G.H.	NICHOLES	For the sake of our children's children, big corporations must disclose the truth to investors.
Paul	Palla	FOSSIL FUELS = DEATH AND YOU KNOW IT! STOP HELPING THEM KILL US!!
eanne	Bynum	Full transparency please. Thank you.
Elaina	Valzania	GET REAL. Close the loops that allow the cover up that are allowing businesses to continue with their large carbon footprints. We can't keep kicking the impact of global warming down the road for another year of decades.
Mack	Lee	Give this rule real teeth!! Make them disclose there entire carbon footprint!!
David	Baca	Green New Deal !!!
lacqueline	Knable	Half measures won't cut it!
Merimee	Moffitt	Hold corporations fully accountable. Mandate transparency! Switch to sustainable energy production; protect what's left of out precious Earth, land, air, and water.
lagmar	mclaughlin	how is this even an optionwe either care about saving our environment or we don'tlet's stop this cat and mouse dick measuringit's counter productive and we don't have much timemen are such cowards
Richard	Wissler	How much warning of climate catastrophe do you expect to get ? ! HEY , This is IT ! If we do nothing now there will be nothing we can do .
Roger	Luckmann	I am a physician and climate activist closely following the SEC's efforts to have companies deal with climate risk issues. Full disclosure with some form of monitoring to assure accuracy will go a long way to making the public confident that climate risks are being accurately represented.
Dani		I am a published author on the topic of scope 3 corporate emissions accounting, so I understand the challenges of accurately providing scope 3 data for upstream and downstream categories across a variety of different sectors. However, the challenges of scope 3 are not an excuse to make disclosure effectively voluntary. I advise incentivizing scope 3 accounting based on real supply chain data as opposed to software estimates, and at least requiring submissions from the highest emitting scope 3 categories, which will be sector dependent and require sector specific guidance. For consultation look to Science-based targets, CDP and Ceres. For more detailed scope 3 recommendations see the conclusion of my paper: https://www.sciencedirect.com/science/article/pii/S2666791621000026
Kristyl	Lindberg	I care about climate change and will be watching. Thank you.
Deb	Stacy	I feel very strongly that we have to work as hard as we can to deal with climate change and not allow polluters to profit from killing life on earth.
Maria Christ	Blanco	I have a 401k through my work and being able to have accurate information about the climate risk of investments is important to me as I choose where to invest my money.
Christopher	Vota	I have a modest proposal: the SEC gives its stamp of certification to the businesses that issue full-disclosure and to those that don't, NOT!
Richard	Stevens	I have believed for a long time that humans are by far the most destructive of all invasive species. The human population is growing while the available living space is shrinking because of climate change that causes rising sea level. For future generations we must do all we can to preserve wildlife and the natural environment.
oan	Johnson	I think climate risk disclosure is really important. Please eliminate any loopholes.
/lary K	Orrange	I think it is a great step forward to require companies to disclose their climate risks. The destruction from climate change is a huge risk for our future. But why leave it up to companies to determine their risk. That is sure to fail. You must enforce this new rule with science backed measures and not let the companies
_auren	Tucker	decide. I think it should be a good thing that companies have to be transparent. What I don't think is good is letting them make the decision since they probably would be hopest
(ata	Konner	be honest.
Kate Prodlev	Kenner	I think this is an excellent idea. Those companies that contribute to the climate crisis should be transparent and no loopholes allowed.
Bradley	Gibson	I want my investments and my planet protected!
Vichael	Coleman	I was never allowed to mark my own homework at school or sign off my performance reviews at work. The SEC is greenlighting companies to OK the destruction devastation and pollution they leave behind them AND gaslighting ordinary people.

Sharon	Holladay	If it isn't taking serious our children are going to suffer our neglect.
Marvis J.	Phillips	If we are serious about saving our planet for future generations, we absolutely must act now! If we wait it will be to late, we must do whatever is required and necessary to protect our planet, or the human race and all life will cease to exist!
Arnie	Rosenberg	If we don't do something about the climate problem or the world as we know it will not be able to sustain humane, plants, and animals. It will be a dead planet.
Robert	Sessions	In lowa we have left the choice of whether farmers will decrease their chemical pollution of our water up to the farmers. After half a decade of voluntary pollution control only about 3% of farmers have done anything. It sure sounds to me this rule toward transparency is riddled with a similar loophole that will undermine at positive effect the rule might have.
Robert	Allenson	In our current global political meltdown, we are failing to resolve to avert catastrophic climate change. If Earth becomes uninhabitable, NOTHING ELSE will matt
		Our overriding need is to go head on at warding off climate catastrophes by all means at hand. In my 90th year I won't live to see the worst, but I care deeply for younger people.
Victor	Wakefield	In these climate filled news days, why allow companies to understate or otherwise falsify their annual filings concerning their full carbon footprint? As a COPD person, I can NOT let such a dereliction of the facts go unnoticed
Charlotte	Bolinger	Is making money more important than the future of our planet and the people on it?
Maxine	Lobel	It is commendable that the SEC is attempting to hold companies responsible for their climate impact, however, without the requirement that the entirety of their carbon footprint is disclosed with liability for not doing so, or dishonesty in the disclosure, this new ruling will be ineffective.
Julie	Bernstein	It is past time to allow companies to police themselves. This is how we ended up with the 2008 recession. Global warming is an urgent matter. As you are probably aware recent reports document that the actual warming that the earth is experiencing is more than was predicted by our best models so we are truly in the midst of a climate emergency since we are not yet experiencing the impact of current atmospheric carbon levels. Please set standards and consequences f
Ruth Sheets	Sheets	It is ridiculous to let corporations decide just how much pollution they will report whether it is their carbon footprint or anything else. We are in a climate crisis!
-		Why are we allowing corporations or anyone else to quibble about what they are doing to our planet? R.Sheets
Larry	Heiny	It is time!
Susan	Blain	It's not oversight if businesses are allowed control without very clear boundaries.
Candace	Russell	It's past time to do everything we can to clean up our environment. It may already be too late, but we must try.
Stanley	Echols	Judging whether or not a company needs to disclose their carbon footprint puts the company in a conflict-of-interest position.
Sylvia	Evans	Just do the right think for our country!!!
Arnold	Erikson	Just get this deed done
Jude	Crump	Lately, it seems that the environment takes a back seat to the greed of corporations, We seem to give tax breaks to those who need it the least. There seems to
Jude	Crump	be a cultural shift in which environment has little validity in the pursuit of big business. Restore balance & decency.
		issuers to omit the majority of their emissions from their disclosures or, even worse, be unaccountable for providing misinformation/disinformation. Allowing businesses to decide what they want to provide in regard to climate risk allows businesses to mislead investors and the public under the guise of climate risk - something some businesses have been doing in their annual statements under public pressure to disclose what they're doing with regard to the climate crisis.

Alexandra	Crisafulli Bernhard	Please help us all to keep from losing our planet! We need to take action NOW. Please pass this rule. Our climate is worsening by the month, it seems, and the UN recently released a dire warning about climate change.
Nancy	Dermard
		It would be wonderful if businesses were so altruistic that they would take such action on their own, but few are. This rule will nudge them in the right direction.
Michael	Klein	Please REQUIRE disclosure of the entire carbon footprint, and do not shield from liability if a company or official of the same lies on their annual filings. These are massive loopholes that could allow polluters to hide the majority of their emissions. We need firm and strong rules requiring recognition of the dangers of climate change in proposed pollution, production of materials that endanger the earth.
		Michael Klein
Jo Ann	Johnson	Please shore up this new rule to require companies to disclose their entire carbon footprint on their annual filings. There is no room for this being optional. Thank you for your appropriate action. JJ
Charlie	Speno	PLEASE STICK TO A RULING THAT HOLDS COMPANIES TO FULL DISCLOSURE AND ACCOUNTABILITY - I MUSTN'T BE OPTIONAL IN ANY WAY
Nathan	Dombeck	Please strengthen the language to CLOSE the loopholes in this important ruling and SAVE our planet.
Dede	Dresser	Please take any voluntary reporting out of the hands of the ones who profit from secrecy. Anything less I morally wrong.
Kathleen	McBeth	Please Take Out The Loopholes That Sheild Companies From Liability When they Lie and Hide their TRUE Carbon FOOTPRINT! THANKYOU For Showing TRUE Patriotism!
Adrianne	Micco	Please, please demand honesty & responsibility for all large businesses & manufacturers.
Mary	Longstreth	Please, require stricter accountability for corporations producing pollution risks and hiding climate-negative impacts. When corporations pursue and use
	Oakaradarf	loopholes to benefit their profits while risking greater carbon negative impacts and individual or investors' financial wellbeing, that's wrong, simply wrong.
Lee Hannah	Schondorf	Politician Corporate Shills must be imprisoned for life!
Neil	Fisher	Polluters must be required to disclose their emissions and not be allowed to fudge their reporting. Pollution is far too great a threat to our survival to have Swiss cheese rules. It is very important to have full transparency and accountability with no loopholes
Nen		allowed.
Bonnie	Karrin	Pollution is killing our lungs, our bodies, our world.
Nancy	DeJarlais	Pollution is NOT HEALTHY FOR ANYONE, EVEN THE DOPES THAT CAUSE IT!!!!
bob	f	Protect our environment
Karen	Magruder	Really??? Investors Must be able to trust that reports from their investments are telling the truth.
		Legalizing lies on the reports and setting the foxes to guard the chickens is a failure in sound policy making.
ML	Ewing	Rules that give irresponsible companies that are trashing the environment an out are not rules at all. No loopholes for polluters!!
Paul	Scott	SEC should CLOSE Polluter's Loopholes. So they can't HIDE behind their LIES.
Tony	Federico	Sickening at the expense of people and environment to line the pockets, more evidence corporations ignorance to climate change and continue violation at the
A	Ohiani	expense of the people!!!
Andrea	Chisari	Since the proposed rule leaves it to the companies to determine whether or not they need to disclose their entire carbon footprint and shields them from liability if they lie on their annual filings, what exactly does this rule DO? These are massive loopholes that could allow polluters to hide the majority of their emissions, so this is a great idea without any teeth, right?
Char	Laughon	Stop allowing corporations continuing to destroy the public's right to safe air, water and land to survive. Corporations don't care about a healthy life; their interest

Susan	Wald	The proposed rule leaves it to the companies to determine whether or not they need to disclose their entire carbon footprint and shields them from liability if they lie on their annual filings. Leaving it up to issuers to determine the materiality of Scope 3 emissions and shielding those issuers from liability for providing false information could allow issuers to omit the majority of their emissions from their disclosures. The final rule MUST establish a clear Scope 3 requirement that applies to all large public companies and ensures that they accurately and consistently report their Scope 3 emissions.
David	Bryan	The proposed rule leaves it to the companies to determine whether or not they need to disclose their entire carbon footprint and shields them from liability if they lie on their annual filings. These are massive loopholes that could allow polluters to hide the majority of their emissions.

KEVIN	OROURKE	The Securities and Exchange Commission just proposed a new rule that would require companies to disclose their climate risks. This rule is a major step forward for transparency that will arm millions of Americans with the data they need on how exposed their retirement funds and college savings plans are to climate risk and help prevent a climate-fueled financial crash.
Faye	Bartlett	The time to take every possible step is now to Jessica	Craven	The world is on fire. You must do more. We will regret not putting everything on the line now if we don't do it. This is not a rehearsal.
Jim	Steitz	There is no greater systemic risk today or act any time in human history, than climate change. The federal government has so far abjectly neglected this reality, and today treats fossil fuel companies as normal, sane, morally plausible clients for the banks that you regulate. Every day that we accept the business model of these companies as normal or acceptable is a further increment of heating to the Earth, inflicted upon our children without their consent.
Janice	Jarrett	There is not much time. Whoever doesn't know that by now is not paying attention.
Patricia	Rowell	There must be no ways around the rule by polluters. Hold all of them accountable.
Carol	Nesbit	There should absolutely be full disclosure. Otherwise, what good is the proposed measure?!
Beverly	Clark	This accountability is crucial to fight climate change!
Joan	Friedman	This can be a major step forward. Close the loopholes.
David	Edwards	This expresses my feelings exactly!
Mare	Wahosi	This is a crisis SEC needs to take action now!
Antonina	Markoff	This is a good step forward but it only will really make the difference that matters if you CLOSE THE LOOPHOLES. No more hiding emissions. Time to step up and be truly accountable. The laws of nature are able to keep count of how much carbon polluters put into our planet's shared atmosphere. Time to come clean.
Robert	Fritsch	This is a significant step to protect our planet as well!!

Cherie	Fazekas	This is not only for us but for all of life on this planet and future generations that will inherit this earth. Let's make them proud that we took action before it was too late.
Norm	Conrad	This is progress but we need much more, and this is too "voluntary".
Eileene	Gillson	This is the only planet we have & it must be protected for the sake of all life.
Mona	Sarfaty	This is too important to our mutual future to leave these significant climate risks undefined. My grandchildren deserve the opportunity that we have had to experience a livable world. I take this seriously as a grandparent and as an investor.
Gail	stern	This seems to protect polluter instead of correct pollution. We must protect consumers & our climate future
Joan	Paskewitz	To save our planet and the lives of our grandchildren we must know which corporations are contributing the most to destroying the Earth.
Beth	Davidson	To the SEC: Put some teeth in your proposed new rule! Companies should absolutely be liable if they lie to their investors about the full scope of the climate risk of their investments in their annual filings. What hard working, middle class person wants to suddenly discover that their retirement fund or college savings plan is suddenly bankrupt because their fiduciary has not adequately factored in climate risk. One of the purposes of the SEC is to protect investors. Please do your job and help the American economy stay strong in the face of a rapidly changing climate.

David	Karlovich	What good is a rule in corporate America (given its history) if it is self-enforceable and has no teeth when lying on annual filings is given the old wink-wink. The idea of the rule is great, but its current state renders it a toothless relic before it is even born. Give this rule some fangs to bite those who would subvert the health of the planet and its people for the proverbial bag of silver. Millions of lives are ultimately on the line and the SEC needs to do the right thing and make any violations of the proposed rule severely punishable.
Lynn	Hardwick	What will your legacy be?
Harry	Levinson	When I invest, I want to know all of the facts. A company that is polluting has significant risk and I should be confident that I know it. Please hold companies liable for misleading annual filings

William	April	Why not disclose their entire carbon footprint? What are they hiding?
Bill	Parrish	You are killing the planet. STOP NOW!!!
John and Eli	Kramarck	You cannot allow companies to decide for themselves whether to disclose their entire carbon footprint. That's realistically no different from the requirements now. By not penalizing them if they lie is just giving an incentive to lie. Past business practices amply demonstrate business will not do the right thing unless forced to under penalty for lying.
